YAZAKI (INDIA) PVT LTD

Yazaki Corporation is an independent automotive component maker established in 1941. As well as automotive wire harnesses, their core product for which they command large share in the global market, they develop and manufacture meters, electronic components and a host of other products for automotive use. Since their first overseas production site was established in Thailand in 1962, their global development and manufacturing network has continued to grow, along with their relationship of mutual trust with car manufacturers around the world. They have developed and produced a long line of eco-friendly and energy saving products, starting with the world's first solar thermal powered air conditioning system in 1974, to the world's first wood biomass energy air conditioning system in 2008. Yazaki is amongst top 12 global auto-component companies with global leadership in W/H having close to 30% market share. Along with wiring harness, Yazaki also produces power distribution management and electronic products, clusters, products for hybrid and electric vehicles and has a significant presence in the emerging trends of electrification and autonomous vehicles. In its 2017 financial year, Yazaki had a turnover of US$ 18 billion, with more than 285,000 employees and operations in 46 countries.
